

Kubus English 1, Sentence Combining Exercise 2

Set Six:

Michelangelo studied anatomy.

He dissected cadavers.

Such gruesome work helped him understand human bones and muscles.

His sculpture celebrates the human body.

Set Seven:

X-rays can penetrate the human body.

They produce images on photographic film.

Shadows on the picture reveal changes in body tissue.

Set Eight:

The early history of medicine is filled with guesswork.

Doctors did not know what caused disease.

They developed cures through trial and error.

Most of the cures did not work.

Cures that worked were considered magical.

Set Nine:

People went to spas to restore their health.

Most spas were located in beautiful settings.

They featured special mineral waters.

The waters were supposed to purge the body of disease.

These watering spots developed into vacation resorts.

Set Ten:

Coronary heart disease is the major cause of death in this country.

Cancer also causes many deaths.

AIDS causes deaths as well.

My grandfather has coronary heart disease.
